A Display of Lights (9)
The Lives and Puzzles of the Telegraph's Six Greatest Cryptic Crossword Setters
Val Gilbert

Summary
Far from the closeted intellectuals you might expect, these influential puzzlers have had extraordinary lives. Some are tragic, some awe-inspiring, but all are fascinating-like the puzzler who was arrested under suspicion of supplying secrets to the Nazis through his clues. The life story of each creator is offered along with an explanation of what makes their clues so fiendishly rewarding and a selection of the greatest puzzles from across their career. A Display of Lights (9)-in crossword parlance, lights is a word for "clue"-is both a great read and a collection of some of the greatest crosswords of all time. It's the perfect gift for lovers of cryptic crosswords everywhere.

Author Bio
Val Gilbert has been Crossword Editor at the Telegraph since 1977. Away from the newspaper, Val is the compiler of The Daily Telegraph quick and cryptic crossword books, The Sunday Telegraph quick and cryptic titles, and The Sunday Telegraph General Knowledge Crossword series. Her expertise and inside knowledge was passed on to crossword addicts in How to Crack a Cryptic Crossword.

The Centenary of the Crossword

The Story of the World’s Most Popular Puzzle

John Halpern, Richard Browne, Will Shortz

Summary

The history of the world’s favorite word puzzle, alongside 50 example puzzles to solve.

Forget riddles, conundrums, or that modern usurper Sudoku, the crossword is the original and best word puzzle and it has truly stood the test of time. A decade-by-decade history of the world’s favorite word puzzle, this book starts from its beginnings in December 1913 in the New York World newspaper and traces its path to total global domination, with each chapter including puzzles from that era for readers to solve. Next it examines the myriad of different puzzle types, and again provides examples. Following that it discusses different crossword setters, offering their words of wisdom as well as example puzzles. The history concludes with a consideration of future solving and the next 100 years.

Author Bio

John Halpern is a crossword setter. He writes crosswords for the Financial Times, the Guardian, and the Independent, and has written cryptic crossword books for the Guardian and the Times. Richard Browne is the crossword editor for the Times. Will Shortz is the crossword editor of the New York Times, the puzzle master for NPR’s Weekend Edition Sunday, and the founder and director of the American Crossword Puzzle Tournament.

Lateral Thinking Posers

More Than 100 Brainteasers to Solve With Logical Reasoning

Erwin Brecher

Summary

Take a novel approach to puzzle-solving in this fun quiz book that tests your ability to think for yourself.

Written by a Mensa certified scholar, the problems in this book describe situations that are unusual or even bizarre, and which defy any attempt to find a ready explanation. Look deeper, however, and it becomes clear that the puzzles are constructed in a manner that will make the circumstances fit one—and only one—reasonable and logical answer. This lends itself to an entertaining and exciting challenge throughout as well as an extremely satisfying payoff once the problem is solved—as every puzzle in the book has a reasonable, well-constructed solution for you to find.

Lateral Thinking Puzzles

More Than 100 Brainteasers to Solve With Logical Reasoning

Erwin Brecher

Summary

Including mind boggling brain teasers with surprisingly straight-forward answers, this novel quiz book will leave you begging for more.

The problems in this book describe even more situations which are unusual or even bizarre, and which defy any attempt to find a ready explanation. However, the puzzles are constructed in a manner that will make the circumstances fit one, and only one, reasonable and logical answer. This lends itself to an entertaining and exciting challenge. This fun book really tests your ability to think for yourself, while knowing all of the puzzles have reasonable, well-constructed solutions.

Tanglers, Too!

50 More Cooperative Problem-Solving Puzzles
Paul Fleisher

Summary
Tanglers, Too! will help your students develop problem-solving skills while developing their ability to work cooperatively. In addition to enhancing reading comprehension, Tanglers help reduce teacher-dependent behavior by teaching students to rely on their own abilities and understandings as well as those of their classmates. What is a Tangler? Many of the Tanglers are logic problems, and some are math word problems. Clues to the answer are on cards that are distributed to the group of 3-6 students. No one student has enough information to solve the puzzle alone. Students must share their information and work cooperatively to reach a solution.

Author Bio

Paul Fleisher, M.Ed., teaches gifted sixth, seventh, and eighth graders in the Richmond, Virginia public schools. He conducts many workshops on topics ranging from teaching through games to cooperative-learning techniques.

Wrinklies' Travel Puzzles
Matthew Donegan

Summary
Crossword, sudokus, riddles, word searches, mazes—more than 160 ways to keep the advanced mind sharp

The perfect antidote to traveler's torpor, this collection offers a host of diverse brainteasers, logic problems, and mental conundrums, guaranteeing that seniors reach their destination in a better frame of mind. Chances are, a wrinkly has already traveled extensively and seen what the world has to offer. Those long bus, train, and plane journeys that cause younger travelers to stare enthusiastically through windows have long since lost their appeal. You basically have two options: catch up on some sleep or find a way to stimulate your mind—with this collection, the latter is the way to go.
